

'The Sea for Rose' by Peter Quinton

Listen to the poem on Youtube with someone in your family:

Talk about what happens in the poem and try to remember all the describing words the poet has used to describe the creatures. Listen to the poem again and imagine what you would see under the sea if you grew fins instead of legs.

- LI: To write a descriptive passage.

In order to be successful remember to use;

- Capital letters, full stops and finger spaces.
- Use connectives i.e. because, then, and, after to extend your sentences.
- Use adjectives to make your sentences more interesting for your reader.
- Create more than one sentence.
- Check over your work to make sure it makes sense.
- Check your spelling and presentation.

Draw a picture of yourself with fins instead of legs under the sea.
